IMAGINE PROJECT SPONSORSHIP INITIATIVE

Call to Action

Women Lead is designed to spotlight local female leaders who support the arts in an effort to inspire young girls to aspire to change the world!

We call on female executives & entrepreneurs to join our Women Lead sponsorship initiative and to share their stories of success with our young patrons. The biographies & headshots of these sponsors will be included on our website (along with a link to your business), in the lobby during our productions, and in the education packets we supply to schools to serve as inspiration to the students.
